Dear The Rt Hon Rachel Reeves MP,

Hospitality sector: Help us help you

Hospitality is one of the UK's most employment-intensive and locally rooted industries. It contributes £93 billion annually to the economy and supports 2.6 million jobs, 7.1% of national employment. But it is operating below capacity.

Growth at 3.8% is merely tracking inflation. Since March 2020, more than 16,000 hospitality venues have closed across the UK, a contraction of over 14%. That decline represents lost jobs, stalled investment and diminished high streets.

If Government is serious about growth and employment, particularly for young people, hospitality must be part of the solution. We therefore urge three immediate steps.

1. Reduce VAT for hospitality and the night-time economy in line with Europe.

At 20%, the UK's VAT rate is significantly higher than many European economies (EU average for hospitality businesses is 11%). A targeted reduction would stimulate demand by keeping prices affordable and restoring margins that are currently suppressing investment and hiring.

2. Ease the cumulative burden of labour costs and business rates.

The reduction in business rates relief and recent changes to National Insurance Contributions are actively discouraging recruitment in one of the UK's main job-creating sectors. Rebalancing these pressures would allow hospitality businesses to flourish, not flounder.

3. Working together to deliver a booming UK economy.

With the right fiscal environment, the hospitality sector could significantly increase hiring over the coming years, especially of under-25s, directly supporting Government objectives on economic inactivity, skills and regional growth.

This is not a request for a subsidy. It is a proposal for growth-enabling reform.

With sensible adjustments to the cost base, hospitality businesses across the West Midlands and beyond stand ready to expand, recruit and invest. In doing so, we can help Government deliver the visible job creation, revitalised high streets and stronger local economies it promised.

Hospitality is more than a balance sheet entry. It is at the centre of everyday life: pubs where communities gather, restaurants that animate our high streets, music venues and theatres that sustain our creative economy, hotels and clubs that power tourism and sport. It is the soul of our nation.

When venues close, it is not just a commercial loss; it is a social and economic contraction that weakens towns, cities and regional confidence. Supporting hospitality is part and parcel of the Government's 'Backing Britain' strategy.

Yours sincerely,

Simon Evans, Editor West Midlands news
